The Misrule of the South. We have more than once awarded creditand we may add gratefully-to the leading New York dailies for the service they have done the country in exposing the fraudulent stories concerning the South, and also the deeds of the plundering thieves who had, by the nefarious reconstruction acts, got into the places of trust and profit in the southern Governments. These papers-mainly the Tribune, Beraid, and Times-have done a great service to the Union; for the whole nation is interested in the maintenance of the dignity, force, and thrift of the South; and the scoundrelism of the Radical officeholders in the South has been at war with them all. We are gratified to see that these invaluable channels of the truth with regard to the South are still open, and the correct

these liberal journals. The Herald of Friday contained a long letter from Mr. CHARLES NORPEIOFF, a Writer of reputation and ability, who gives the public through the Herald a chapter a half cubic feet; also, requiring all privies to beaded: "How Arkansas was Robbed-Six be supplied with water tight boxes of like Years of Flunder - Peconstruction Conspiracy." It is a chapter that will amoze northern readers. It can be of little use to publish it here. Our people know too well the fifth being entirely removed. No argument arts and tricks of those who have been foist- is needed to commend these suggestions to ed upon southern governments through the terribic adulteration of the southern constituent bodies under "reconstruction." They could not derive instruction from Mr. Nosp-HOFF'E graphic wetch.

The wonder of the North should be bow people could patiently submit to such oppressions-suct plundering as Mr. Nordeoff describes; and since they must see that the North is interested in the prosperity and power of the South as a part of the Union, wrongs and eutrages perpetrated upon a part of their own country. The forbearance and good order of the South under the highest possible provocation cannot fail to win the admiration of all intelligent and liberalminded people, and no northern man who feels rightly towards the South as a part of his country can fail to be incensed at the In the Gentral Law Journal of February 12, manner'it has been wronged.

These-are the sentiments that have been working upon the Northern mind steadily since sook after the war. These sentiments showed themselves clearly last year. They are still exerting their influence upon the Northern people, and will in good time vindicate the Government from the stigma inflicted upon it by a ruthless party more bent on power and plunder for itself than on pro-Union.

The Philadelphia Centennial Twelve months or more ago we felt no great kindness towards the proposed celebration at Philadelphia on the 4th of July, '76, for reasons which we frankly stated: mainly, because the principles on which our forefathers founded the Government under which we live have been grossly outraged, and we did not think there was any good ground for celebrating the day on which those princi- The State Debt-Meeting at Wylliesples were proclaimed by the nation notil they were reëstablished. Particularly we deemed it most unfit that those who suffered oppressions through outrages upon those principles should indulge in jubilations over them with those who approved those out-

But since we expressed our opinions on this point with equal energy and sincerity, a change has come upon the country and upon Pennsylvania. A revolution in political opinions and inclinations has taken place, and the North, including Pennsylvania, seems to be disapproving comewhat the wrongs that strongly affirming that "honesty is the best have been committed, and disposed to return policy in State as in private affairs," and that be disapproving comewhat the wrongs that the ark of the covenant of the nation to its proper place in the temple.

Of course this medities very considerably the grounds upon which our disinclination towards the centennial celebration rested. " Much yet remains" undone, but that which has been done inspires, as to hope for the remainder.

A Yorkshire boy entered an cating-house in which some men were eating eggs and asked them for a little salt. Upon being asked what he wanted with it he replied that somebody might give him an egg, and he would then have the salt to eat it with. Upon this policy we would go to the centennial, hoping that the expected political good would follow afterwards. We have no ob- down Blaine, Hawley, Phelps, Foster, Dawes, jection to eating salt with our Philadelphia and all those who do not how abjectly to the and Pennsylvania fellow-citizens upon the third-term programme. It is declared by Arabian idea that it makes fast friends.

With these views we are for Virginia being represented at Philadelphia on the 4th July, compelled to go to the rear at once and be 1876. We would that she may not seem to treated as outside the pale of party favor. desire a continuance of the feeling of alienation; that she may interchange greetings with representatives of other States, and that whatever be the feelings of others towards the principles of enlightened liberty. she may indulge hers in all sincerity, hoping that in reverting to the day on which they were defintly proclaimed, they may be rekindled in hearts which have been as it were long dead to them.

The Richmon's spellers seem to us to have been better qualified for the task which they undertook than any others whose performances have come to our knowledge, except those of Boston. We would add that WORCESTER spells "guerilla" with one "r," and that the spelling of "cartouche" with an "e" ought not, in our opinion, to have been counted as a miss. Certainly if "guerilla" must have two "r's" because the Spaniards so spell it, "cartouche" may have an "e" because the French so spell it,

We have received a copy of the Annual Report of the Board of Health of Richmond, Dr. J. G. CABELL, president. It contains a good deal more than the mere record of the births, deaths, and marriages. Here is one of the recommendations made by the Board "In this connection we recommend the adoption of two additional sections to chapter 28 of the City Ordinances—one, forbidding the construction of any sink or cess-pool to the construction of any sink o accounts of the condition of southern affaire are still reaching northern eyes through the construction of any sink or cess-pool to be used as a privy; secondly, requiring all sinks and cess-pools now in use to be cleansed, disinfected, and filled up with earth, and their places supplied with watertight boxes, of a capacity of at least six and size. [Special dispatch to the Philadelphia Times.] WASHINGTON, April 8 .- As I predicted two days ago, the policy of the Administration will henceforth be one of releatless proscription of all leading Republicans who do not avor the whole policy and ambition of the President, including the third term. The Grant organ here and the home organ of Cameron in Penpsylvania, edited by his private secretary, who is paid by the Govern-ment, have lad off in the work of hunting those who speak for the President, that there shall be no more distractions of the party by the "Independents" -- that they shall all be Morton is absent in New Orleans, and Cameron is also junketing along the sea coast on Government rations, but it is proclaimed that they will fall into line as soon as they return. Morton must do so or yield the leadership absolutely to Conkling, and Cameron must obey or lose his position as chairman of Foreign Relations and his control of Pennsylvania patronage besides. Many will iscline to revolt, but when it is evident that they cannot make the issue inside of the party, but must go, like Schurz, and Fenton, and Trumbull, in 1872, outside of the fold, most of the senators will yield a assume a very practical character-we desire sullen obedience, and the President will this year, as it will prove the absolute necessity of taking him as the candidate in 1876. was an offence that has never been forgiven, and his defeat next fall will be gratefel news Thus we think Virginia may promote her to all about the White House. It is now no want of ordinary political sagacity.

The greatest humbug of this age is the manner in which demagogues seek to capture the sympathy and votes of the crowd by continually harping on the enormity of taxation; and strange to say these fishers of m:n throw out their books to the very class which is least affected by taxation.
